Shri H. S. Ahluwalia, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Akhil Agarwal, Panel lawyer for the Respondents.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was acquitted from the charges under section 7 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 by order dated 24.9.2001 passed by the Special Judge (Prevention of Corruption Act) in Special Case No. 3/97. Pursuant to the acquittal of the petitioner the suspension of the petitioner was revoked vide order dated 21.7.2003. The petitioner claims back wages for the period, he remained under suspension on account of pendency of the case before the Special Judge. Learned Counsel for the petitioner further submits that once the suspension has been revoked the respondents cannot reject the claim of the petitioner for back wages on the ground that the appeal is pending before the first appellate Court. Mr. Agarwal, learned counsel for the respondents does not dispute the facts as stated by the learned counsel for the petitioner.
